Dear Mr Strassegger,

The publisher has sent me a copy of your novel, called “Goldstein’s confession”, which has gripped me with excitement. It is such a fantastic story that it can only be based on the truth, as you just cannot imagine anyone being able to invent such a story-line. I would be really interested to know who told you this tale.

As well as the utter amazing story, which gripped my attention the end. I was amazed with your incredible attention to detail. This really must have been a considerable amount of work and complicated exercise.

I have also been wondering if we have ever met, as you mention in length a town called Zug, in where I have lived for the past 19 years.

Again, I can only congratulate you !

With best wishes, yours faithfully

Johannes Mario Simmel
